

IAN ROBERTSON

DipIT Marketing Management '78

Executive Director, Corporate Communications and Public Affairs, Armstrong Group (Rocky Mountaineer Vacations)

Distinguished Alumni Award for Public Service and Service to the Community

“BCIT taught me how to be a leader in business and in my community.”

IAN ROBERTSON HAS WORKED TIRELESSLY to advance his career and to give back to the community and city that he loves. First elected to the Vancouver Park Board in 2005, Ian served his first term as vice chair, second term as chair, and returned to vice chair in the third term leading up to the civic election in November 2008.

During his term, Ian has advocated strongly for enhancements of recreation and park spaces, including the Vancouver Aquarium, Van Tech High School, Trout Lake, and Trillium lands. In addition to his work with the Park Board, Ian has demonstrated leadership in his community, acting as coach and president of Dunbar Little League, serving over 600 children and 150 volunteers, and as the chair of the Southlands Elementary School PAC.

Currently, Ian is executive director, Corporate Communications and Public Affairs with Armstrong Group, owners and operators of the world renowned Rocky Mountaineer and Whistler Mountaineer trains. As well as being responsible for corporate communications and public affairs for the Armstrong Group, Ian Robertson oversees the sustainable development of all of its companies.

Congratulations Ian Robertson on your BCIT Distinguished Alumni Award!
